Sgt. Nathan DEHAAN
Detachment Commander
Redwater, Alberta

Dear Mayor Alanna HNATIW,

Please find the quarterly Community Policing Report attached that covers the January 1st to March 31st, 2024 reporting period. The attached report serves to provide a quarterly snapshot of the human resources, financial data and crime statistics for the Redwater RCMP Detachment.

I would also like to introduce you to Deputy Commissioner Rob Hill, the new Commanding Officer of the Alberta RCMP. Deputy Commissioner Hill has had a diverse and wide-ranging RCMP career, spanning from the Prairies to the Arctic, with positions along the way that have included Drugs Section in Winnipeg and as the former Detachment Commander of Stony Plain (now amalgamated in to Parkland). With public safety as the beacon guiding our operations, Deputy Commissioner Hill is focussed on community engagement; Reconciliation; employee wellness; and recruiting new police officers and retention. Deputy Commissioner Hill is proud to lead your Alberta RCMP and looks forward to meeting you in the future.

Your ongoing engagement and the feedback you provide guides our Detachment team, and supports the reinforcement of your policing priorities. I always remain available to discuss your community-identified policing priorities and/or any ideas you may have that will enhance our service delivery to address the priorities that are important to you. As the Chief of Police for your community, I invite you to contact me should you have any questions or concerns.

Community Priorities

Priority No. 1

Priority (this field expands)

Crime Reduction - Prolific Offenders

Current Status and Results (this field expands)

Members have continued to monitor 16 prolific offenders, and have conducted proactive compliance checks. Members have seen an increase in compliance in checks, with four offenders being charged with failing to comply with their conditions.

Warrant executions remain steady during the quarter.

BAIT items deployments remain at zero, pending BAIT item availability.

Priority No. 2

Priority (this field expands)

Enhance Public Confidence and Engagement - Consultations and Connections

Current Status and Results (this field expands)

Redwater Detachment did not hold any town halls during the final quarter.

Interactions with community groups remains consistent, with strong ties being built within the community between the COP group and the schools.

Media briefs continue to be investigation specific.

Rave Alert continues to be sent weekly, with continued positive feedback.

Priority No. 3

Priority (this field expands)

Enforcement/Visibility In Communities

Current Status and Results (this field expands)

Members continued proactive interactions on our highways and in our communities, with 48 tickets written, and 13 warnings issued during the fourth quarter.

Three checkstops were held, to positive community feedback.

Priority No. 4

Priority (this field expands)

Substance Abuse - Drug

Current Status and Results (this field expands)

There were no CDSA charges laid during the fourth quarter, likely because several prolific offenders remain in custody for their outstanding criminal matters.
