CHOOSING STURGEON COUNTY

“Sturgeon County is the perfect location to develop, test and commercialize world-leading technology, all in the same area code as our target markets.” says CEO, Cole Rosentreter. “Access to talent, established supply chains and large volumes of relatively quiet airspace only a few kilometers from a major city are major factors as to why Sturgeon County is an ideal location, and ecosystem for Pegasus.”

AVAILABILITY OF SUITABLE LAND

Sturgeon County offers strategic development of the aerospace industry cluster and has plans to develop approximately 1,200 hectares of land surrounding the Villeneuve Airport into a hub for tech, aerospace and defence business. We have suppliers of training services, manufacturing and repair and maintenance. Come tap into a wide variety of contacts in both military and civilian industries.

Thousands of acres of shovel-ready heavy, medium and light industrial land zoned for development
